TERMS OF SALE

This is a public and mail bid auction sale. Lots will be sold on the dates indicated. Bidders unknown to us must supply acceptable credit references or a 25% deposit to assure entry of their bids.

A ten percent buyers' premium will be added to the cost of all lots.

All floor sales are final. No lots may be returned for any reason by floor buyers. Any claims for adjustment by mail bidders must be made within three days after receipt of books. No lots may be returned without our written permission.

Terms of this sale are strictly cash in United States funds only. Payments from foreign accounts must be made in U.S. Dollars by International Check to the account of George Frederick Kolbe through any New York Correspondent bank. Bids from minors cannot be accepted without written and signed parental permission.

Unless exempt by law, the buyer will be required to pay, on the total purchase price, the combined New York State and local sales tax or any applicable compensating use tax of any other state.

All books are as described. We acknowledge the possibility of errors or typographical mistakes, and any errors on our part will be cheerfully corrected. We cannot be responsible for your errors: please check your bid sheet carefully.

Title remains with the owner until lots are paid for in full. We reserve the discretionary right to withhold delivery of lots until full payment has been received.

The prices indicated after each lot are estimates of value only and are intended solely as a guide. The prices realized may be higher or lower than these valuations.

By submitting your bids you agree to the Terms of Sale herewith set forth. Payment in full must be made immediately upon notification or upon receipt of books.

Lots to be mailed to addresses not in the United States or its Territories will be sent only at the risk of the purchaser. When possible, insurance will be obtained. It must be noted, however, that adequate insurance is often not available via surface mail.

All lots will be sold to the highest bidder. Mail bids will be treated as limits and lots will be purchased below the maximums where competition permits. There is no charge or commission for executing bids, however, a premium of 10% of the successful bid price is payable by the buyer as part of the total purchase price. All postage, insurance and shipping charges will be added to invoices. There will be a $1.00 charge per lot for packing and processing.

- 26 [BRAND, VIRGIL]. Inventory of the Division of the Coin Collection Formed by Virgil Michael Brand. Chicago, 1932-1935. The original manuscript listings of the distribution of the collection, handwritten on several hundred 12" x 17" unbound yellow ledger sheets. The original B.G. Johnson and Henry Chapman appraisal worksheets, and, also, a long box of coin cards describing, with prices, many of the great rarities in the collection. (1000.00)
An extensive and most important archive, detailing the division of the greatest private coin collection ever formed. From the estate of Horace Louis Philip Brand, currently from the estate of Robert Friedberg. The early division inventories are the most important. Called "Rarities", these lists divided the rarest of the rare and, fortuitously for modern researchers, separated the most valuable and important coins from their hundreds of thousands of less notable brethren. The later lists record the division of less important but still significant coins. Some of the "rarities" lists feature Horace Brand's notes on purchasers of the coins. The box of coin cards sometimes features notes on cost, prices being asked for similar specimens, and, occasionally, buyers' names. A unique opportunity.
- 27 [BRAND, VIRGIL]. Robert Friedberg's Correspondence Files with Horace Brand, 1947-1961. Included in this extensive body of material are hundreds of letters from Horace Brand and carbon copies of Robert Friedberg's responding letters. Also, there are numerous lists of "Rarities" and other coin lists, an inventory of the foreign books in the Brand numismatic library, and a file of Horace Brand's own correspondence with dealers and collectors. (500.00)
A detailed and complicated record of dealings between these two notable numismatic figures, dwelling extensively on the sale of coins from the estate of Virgil Brand. Other dealers of the day are discussed, many great numismatic rarities are offered and often sold, financial details are thrashed over, all of which provides considerable insight into the commercial aspects of numismatics at the time and the character and personalities of many of the principal players. The great numbers of rare coins mentioned in this correspondence, however, deserve the most attention, and the research value of the material offered herein is important indeed.

Three volumes, volume II not present. 741: 383: 345 numbered leaves, manuscript titles, engraved titles adapted from the engraved title of Alkemade's 1700 work. Volume I consists of introductory text, in manuscript, followed by well over a thousand finely drawn illustrations of jetons, depicting both sides, accompanied by occasional text. Volumes III & IV consist almost entirely of finely drawn illustrations of medals, depicting both sides, accompanied by occasional text and sometimes printed illustrations cut to size and pasted in. There are a number of blank leaves in all volumes. Folio. Matching contemporary blindstamped vellum, front joints cracked. Fine. (1500.00)

A unique and most important manuscript, based on the collections of van Alkemade and van Der Schelling, apparently prepared by the former. Cornelis van Alkemade, Dutch archeologist and antiquary, was born in Noordwyk in 1654 and died in 1737. His work on the current gold and silver coins of Holland, published in Delft in 1700, stood as the standard work until it was largely superseded by the efforts of van der Chys a century and a half later. Van Alkemade apparently worked on this extensive manuscript until near the end of his life, perhaps intending it for publication.
